

PROJECT TITLE	DESCRIPTION	REGION
Appetite for Angus-Regional Pop-Ups	Series of pop-up events and initiatives at local and national events to showcase produce and producers from regional food group, Appetite for Angus	Angus
Borders Food Kitchen	Unique collaboration between Scottish Borders farmers, butchers and chefs at the Border Union Show to demonstrate the quality and exceptional taste of local produce.	Borders
Bowhouse Link	Creation of subscription box service, via a shared ecommerce site, to make shopping locally & seasonally easier. Build on previous projects developed during the pandemic from this exceptional enterprise in Fife	Fife
Celebrating Scottish grain, flour and bread	Collaborative project to showcases the high quality bread-making grains being grown and milled in Scotland, and the artisan bakers who use it to bake nutritious, real bread for their communities. Working with a young Scottish filmmaker, a short video will be created to demonstrate the skilled craftsmanship of the artisan bakers and the flour they use, as well as highlighting the two main Scottish flour mills in action	Fife
Clyde Islands Gin Passport	Collaboration of several distilleries in the region to create a Clyde Island gin passport, a physical passport to accompany the purchase of a Clyde Island gin pack. Aims to help create awareness of the three islands as a group, for visitors to consider as a holiday destination and provide general travel and visitor information including suggested travel itineraries	Ayrshire
Festival de Noel	Food and drink events to boost tourism and the local economy in Braemar during the quieter months	Aberdeenshire
Food from Argyll Event	Delivery of planning and consultation process to create a major in event in 2023 and beyond. Planning commissioned by the excellent regional food group, Food from Argyll, with a strong track record in successful food and drink events	Argyll
Glass Wilder Food Feasts	This is a collaborative project between two new entrant food producers, a chef and local estate to offer seasonal pop-up feasts and events. This project will enable us to engage more local people with local food, which has been produced on 'wilder' farmland and is farmed in a way that directly contributes to nature recovery	Aberdeenshire

Grantown Food and Drink Fest	Creation of food and drink festival in Grantown-on-Spey to showcase the diversity of local producers to the public. After the festival, a 'meet the producer' will be held event for producers to meet tourism businesses providing opportunities to collaborate, grow and diversify through trade partnerships. An online food and drink trail for visitors will be developed to promote the project	Perthshire
The Green Bowl Local Food Hub	Local food hub, marketing, selling and distributing food produced within the village of Elphin & surrounding areas to residents and tourists	Highlands
Improving Access to Local on Isle of Bute	Project to increase level of local produce on the island by installing refrigerated and ambient display units at retail outlets with a map to promote	Isle of Bute (Argyll)
Jump Start Programme	Three month structured programme for ambitious food and drink start-ups in Dumfries and Galloway. Up to ten ambitious food and drink businesses will have the opportunity to apply, giving them ahead start in getting their product to market faster	Dumfries & Galloway
Lanarkshire Recipes	Innovative project by regional food group Lanarkshire Larder to promote the variety and quality of Lanarkshire's produce, with webpages focusing on traditional recipes from the region using local produce	Lanarkshire
Love Langholm Market	Funding will enable the appointment of a freelance administrator to work on this fairly new market which was revived under new ownership when the previous team stepped down after the pandemic. The post will enable the market's longevity and growth	Dumfries & Galloway
NeighbourFood Pitlochry	Development of the online producer marketplace that will enable it to increase the number of producers & customers as well as greater awareness amongst locals and visitors	Perthshire
North Highland Products Research	North Highland Products, the trading arm of North Highlands Initiative (launched by HRH The Prince of Wales in 2005) produces a range of products, especially beef and lamb. Aim is to conduct research which will help provide impartial, data based facts which may give the North Highlands brand a point of difference and provide reason to secure shelf space in the future, or open doors to new markets	Highlands

Rosewell Farmers Market	Establishment of regular Farmers 'Market at the Steading, Rosewel featuring high quality, locally grown or sourced produce. A small-scale regional, collaboration between Rosewell Development Trust and local food producers	Edinburgh & Lothians
Scottish Development	Evolution of the successful sales and marketing platform for Edinburgh's craft breweries, Beers of Edinburgh, which opens new market opportunities for the sector. Funding will enable further online and retail sales as well as transferring the format to wider Scottish regions to allow other Scottish breweries to benefit.	Edinburgh & Lothians
Shetland Seafood Provenance Scheme	Collaborative project to improve the promotion of where and how to source and savour locally produced seafood. Funding will enable activities such as refreshed map of current outlets of Shetland produce; a series of promotional events and educational videos	Shetland
Stranraer Oyster Festival	Project aims to increase the 'taste of place' experience of this renowned festival, telling the story of Galloway's regional food and drink, creating a focal point for local produce within the 'kitchen marquee' of the festival site. It will connect local producers and food tourism experiences with local chefs through recipe development and provenance narrative	Dumfries & Galloway
Tarbert Seafood Festival	Annual seafood festival in village of Tarbert. Project will enhance promotion of locally-landed seafood; give local businesses an economic boost and promote the area's wider tourism offering	Argyll
Taste Tayside - Celebrating Seasonality	Consumer-facing 'buy local' campaign in Dundee to help local hospitality businesses to recover from the pandemic, work with their suppliers to promote good, locally sourced, seasonal produce, delivered by regional food group Eat and Drink Dundee. Participating businesses will have access to planned 'Provenance Premium' workshops and 'Meet the Producer' events	Tayside (Dundee)
Turriff Show food and drink pavilion	Creation of food and drink pavilion at the Turriff Agricultural Show which attracts 20k visitors. Project will facilitate local food and drink producers to come together, to showcase the superb variety of products that are available from producers in the North East	Aberdeenshire